

Workshop in Demography and Actuarial Science: Methods and Practice

26 June 2013, Murphy building, room 632

Hosted by the
 School of Mathematics, Statistics and Operations Research

Programme – Updated 26 June

Speaker	Description	Time
David Bibby, PVC Science, Victoria University of Wellington	Welcome	12.30- 12.40
Estate Khmaladze, Professor of Statistics, Victoria University of Wellington	Statistical methods for demographers and actuaries: the book review	12.40- 13.25
Estate Khmaladze, Professor of Statistics, Victoria University of Wellington	Information on the SPFI Programme at Victoria	13.25- 13.40
BREAK	Refreshments	13.40- 14.00
Kim Dunstan, Senior Demographer, Statistics New Zealand	Demographic challenges and statistical developments	14.00- 14.30
Leigh Roberts, Economics and Finance, Victoria University of Wellington	Run offs and run outs: extending the life table to other disciplines	14.30- 15.00
Natalie Jackson, NIDEA Director, Waikato University	What is on a [New Zealand] demographer's mind?	15.00- 15.30
BREAK	Refreshments	15.30- 15.45

Speaker	Description	Time
Paul Rhodes, President, NZ Society of Actuaries	Earthquakes, catastrophes, and the RBNZ solvency standards	15.45-16.00
Richard Brookes, Taylor Fry Consulting Actuaries	Customer elasticity and price optimisation in personal lines insurance	16.00-16.15
Eric Judd, ACC Paul Rhodes, PricewaterhouseCoopers Geoff Rashbrooke, Institute for Governance and Policy Studies, Victoria University of Wellington	PANEL DISCUSSION Actuarial valuations in the public sector	16.15-16.45
Everyone	General discussion	16.45-17.00
Everyone	Networking, at the Staff bar, at your own expense	17.00-

Organising Committee:

John Haywood, Estate Khmaladze, Ginny Whatarau
School of Mathematics, Statistics and Operations Research
Victoria University of Wellington